Supporting the next generation in Ventura County agriculture

805 Ag Kids is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization focused on supporting local youth and promoting awareness of their agriculture-related activities. We operate as a grassroots community group, powered by volunteers and fueled financially by individuals, businesses and corporations with local and regional interests.

Our volunteers are connected to the 805 Ag community through their families, businesses and a shared belief in the importance of advancing and protecting the region's agriculture industry. Our donors, sponsors and supporters know the circular value of insuring our 805 Ag Kids get the financial backing they need to succeed.

Our Ag Kids are members of local 4-H Clubs, FFA Chapters, Grange Organizations and Independent Groups. They are dedicated to their education and extra-curricular pursuits and they value participation in animal and agriculture projects.

Many of these kids need financial support to further their education and work experience. That's where we come in, providing support and resources in the form of no-interest loans, grants, scholarships and gifts.

As adult leaders and influencers, we feel our collective actions will help kids positively move forward in their Ag-related endeavors and bring favorable attention to the region's vitally important and life-sustaining local agri-businesses.

We believe this is our community's obligation and our individual responsibility.

If you or your organization is interested in joining our efforts to support the next generation in Ventura County Agriculture, please contact me directly.

Sincerely,
Megan Hook
